An Act to amend the Act respecting the Statutes of Canada.

[Assented to 14th June, 1872.]

ER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. All the original Acts, passed by the Legislatures of the late Provinces of Upper or Lower Canada, or of the late Province of Canada, transferred to and deposited of record in the office of the Clerk of the Senate, and also all original Acts of the Parliament of Canada heretofore assented to, or hereafter to be assented to by the Governor General, and all Bills reserved for the signification of the Queen's pleasure, and assented to or disallowed by the Queen in Council, shall be and continue to remain of record in the custody of the Clerk of the Senate of Canada, and such Clerk, as Custodian thereof, shall be known and designated as "The Clerk of the Parliaments:" And every thing now required by the Act intituled: An Act respecting the Statutes of Canada, or by any other Act of the Parliament of Canada, to be done by the Clerk of the Senate, as Custodian of the said Acts or any of them, shall be done by the Clerk of the Parliaments.

2. The Clerk of the Parliaments shall have a Seal of Office, and shall affix the same to certified copies of all Acts intended for the Governor General or the Registrar General of Canada or required to be produced before Courts of Justice, either within or beyond the limits of the Dominion of Canada, and in any other case, when the said Clerk may deem it expedient.

3. All copies of the Acts above referred to, so certified by the Clerk of the Parliaments, shall be held to be duplicate originals, and also to be evidence, as if printed under the authority of Parliament by the Queen's Printer, of such acts and of their contents.

4. As soon as practicable after the prorogation of every session of Parliament, the Clerk of the Parliaments shall obtain from the Queen's Printer a sufficient number of bound copies of the Statutes of Canada passed during such Session of Parliament, and shall deliver to the Governor General one copy duly certified, for transmission to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by the British North America Act, 1867, together with certified copies of all Bills reserved for the signification of the Queen's pleasure, and one like copy of the said Acts in the English and French languages to the Registrar General of Canada.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to amend the Act relating to Banks and Banking.

[Assented to 14th June, 1872.]

IN amendment of the Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled: "An Act relating to Banks and Banking,"—Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

1. Whereas by the fifteenth section of the Act cited in the preamble, it is provided that every Bank to which the said Act applies, shall be exempt from the tax on the average amount of its notes in circulation, to which other Banks will continue liable, and from the obligation to hold any portion of its capital in Government Debentures or debentures of any kind, and the Bank of British North America is one of the Banks to which the said Act applies, and is so described in section seventy-six, and is subject to the obligations in consideration whereof the exemptions in the said fifteenth section were granted, but by a clerical error in the seventy-second section, enumerating the sections which apply to the said Bank, the said fifteenth section was omitted. and it is expedient to remedy such error,-therefore, and for the removal of doubt, it is declared and enacted that the said fifteenth section shall apply to the said Bank, and shall be held to have so applied from the time when the said section came into force with respect to the Banks mentioned in the Schedule to the said Act.

2. And whereas it is provided by Acts of the Parliament of Canada, that Banks shall not be liable to incur any penalty or forfeiture for usury, and may stipulate for, take, reserve, or exact any rate of interest or discount not exceeding seven per centum per annum, and may receive and take in advance any such rate, but no higher rate of interest shall be recoverable by the Bank;—and whereas in some of the Provinces of Canada, laws may be in force, imposing penalties on parties other than Banks, tor taking, or stipulating, or paying more than a certain rate of interest, and doubts may arise as to the effect of such laws in certain cases, as to parties other than the Bank, to negotiable securities discounted or otherwise acquired and held by any Bank,-therefore it is, declared and enacted, that no promissory note, bill of exchange or other negotiable security discounted, by, or indorsed or otherwise assigned to any Bank, to which any such Act of the Parliament of Canada as aforesaid applies, shall be held to be void, usurious, or tainted by usury, as regards such Bank or any maker, drawer, acceptor, indorser, or indorsee thereof, or other party thereto, or bond fide holder thereof, nor shall any party thereto be subject to any penalty or forfeiture, by reason of any rate of interest taken, stipulated or received by such Bank, on or with respect to such promissory note, bill of exchange, or other negotiable security, or paid or allowed by any party thereto to another in compensation for, or in consideration of the rate of interest taken, or to be taken thereon by such Bank,-but no party thereto, other than the Bank, shall be entitled to recover or liable to pay more than the lawful rate of interest in the Province where the suit is brought, nor shall the Bank be entitled to recover a higher rate than seven per cent. per annum; and no innocent holder of or party to any promissory note, bill of exchange, or other negotiable security, shall in any case be deprived of any remedy against any party thereto, or liable to any penalty or forfeiture, by reason of any usury or offence against the laws of any such Province respecting interest, committed in respect of such note, bill or negotiable security, without the complicity or consent of such innocent holder or party.

3. It shall be lawful for any Bank to which the Act first herein cited applies, (including the Bank of British North America, and La Banque du Peuple) to receive deposits from any person or persons whomsoever, whatever be his, her, or their age, status or condition in life, and whether such person or persons be qualified by law to enter into ordinary contracts or not, and from time to time to repay any or all of the principal thereof and to pay the whole or any part of the interest thereon, to such person or persons respectively, without the authority, aid, assistance, or intervention of any person or persons, official or officials, being required, unless before such repayment the money so deposited in and repaid by the Bank, be lawfully claimed as the property of some other party, in which case it may be paid to the depositor with the consent of the claimant, or to the claimant with the consent of the depositor, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary, notwithstanding :- Provided always, that if the person making any deposit, as aforesaid, could not, under the law of the Province where the deposit is made, deposit and withdraw money in and from a Bank without this Act, then and in that case the total amount of deposits to be received from such person on deposit shall not at any time exceed the sum of five hundred dollars.

4. No such Bank shall be bound to see to the execution of any trust whether expressed, implied, or constructive, to which any deposit made under the authority of this Act may be subject; and, except only in the case of lawful claim by some other party before repayment, the receipt of the person in whose name any such deposit stands, or, if it stand in the name of two persons, the receipts of one, and if the names of more than two persons, the receipt of a majority of such persons, shall be a sufficient discharge to all concerned for the payment of any money payable in respect of such deposit, notwithstanding any trust to which such deposit may then be subject, and whether or not the Bank sought to be charged with such trust, (and with whom the deposit may have been made), had notice thereof; and no such Bank shall be bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipt, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding. 5. The provisions contained in sections forty-six, forty-seven and forty eight of the Act cited in the Preamble are hereby extended to cereal grains in process of being converted into malt or flour, and to malt and maltsters, and also to hogs when converted into bacon and hams.

6. The provisions of the second paragraph of the fifty-first section of the said Act as to the sale of stock, bonds, debentures and securities in case of default to pay the debt for securing which they were acquired by a bank, may be departed from or varied by any agreement between the bank and the owner of such stock, bonds, debentures or securities, made at the time at which such debt was incurred, or if the time of payment of such debt has been extended then by an agreement made at the time of such extension.

7. In each immigration district, an Immigration Aid Society or Immigration Aid Societies, for the purpose of assisting immigrants to reach Canada from Europe, and to obtain employment on their arrival in Canada, and of enabling persons in Canada in want of laborers, artisans, or servants, to obtain them by such immigration, may be formed under this Act; each such society consisting of not less than twenty-five persons, whether resident or not in the immi-gration district, agreeing to form such society, and to subscribe among them, as the capital of the society, not less than five hundred dollars, in shares of twenty dollars each, one-half of which at least shall be paid, on subscribing the declaration of membership hereinafter mentioned, into the hands of a person agreed upon as their secretary-treasurer by the persons (not being less than twenty-five) present at the meeting at which it is agreed to form such society.

3. The persons agreeing to form such Society shall elect or agree upon a President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and Board of Management, composed of not less than five members, including the officers above mentioned, and shall adopt a constitution and by-laws, and shall respectively sign a declaration to the effect following: "We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves to-gether as "The Immigration Aid Society No....., of the Immigration district of ......", and we hereby bind ourselves to observe and obey all the requirements of The Immigration Aid Societies Act, 1872, and to pay respectively into the hands of the Secretary-Treasurer the amount of stock set opposite our respective names, one-half on subscribing this declaration, and the other half by the instalments and in the manner hereinafter provided; and we further bind ourselves to observe and obey the constitution and by-laws of the Society, which are as follows:"-Then shall follow the constitution and by-laws, which shall declare the object of the Society to be those mentioned in section two and such other special objects (if any) as it may be thought necessary to enumerate; and shall contain the names of the first President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and members of the Board of Management; the place where the Society will have its office and hold its meetings; the manner in which the remainder of the stock of the Society shall be paid up; the annual subscription to be paid by members, if such subscription be deemed advisable; the admission of new members; the duties and powers of the Board of Management and officers; the time during which the officers and other members of the Board of Management shall remain in office; the regular meetings of the Society, and the mode of calling and holding special meetings, and the quorum, and mode of voting thereat; the mode of filling vacancies among the officers and members of the Board of Management, or the performance of their duties by others during their absence; the period for which the Society shall continue, and the mode of dividing its assets at the end of such period, or its profits from time to time during such period; and generally such provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the well-working of the Society and the attainment of the objects for which it is formed; then shall follow the signatures of members, and in columns opposite thereto, the amounts of stock for which they respectively subscribe, and the amounts paid up : the declaration shall then be dated and attested by the signatures of the President or Vice-President and of the Secretary-Treasurer.

4. The declaration shall be made in duplicate, and the duplicates shall be delivered or sent by the Sccretary-Treasurer to the immigration agent of the district, who shall compare it with this Act, and with such instructions as may have been given him on the subject by the Minister of Agriculture, and who, if he has any doubt as to its being conformable to this Act and to such instructions, may forward it to the Minister for his opinion; and if it be not found so conformable, the immigration agent shall return both duplicates to the Secretary-Treasurer, informing him. of the fact and of the objection to which the declaration is liable; but if it be found to be so conformable, he shall certify the fact under his hand on both duplicates, and shall retain and keep one of them in his office, and shall return the other to the Secretary-Treasurer.

5. If there be no other Immigrant Aid Society in his district, the immigration agent shall treat the Society as number one, and shall fill the blank left in the declaration for that purpose with that number, but if there be another or others, he shall give each a number in the order in which he certifies the declarations, and shall fill the blank in each with its proper number, according to such order.

6. As soon as the declaration is approved and certified as aforesaid, the Society shall be a corporation, or body politic and corporate, by the name taken in the declaration, including the number. given it by the immigration agent, and shall have all the powers, rights and immunities assigned to corporations by the Interpretation Act, including the right to have a corporate seal if they think fit, but it shall not be necessary that the corporate seal (if they have one) should be affixed to any document in order to make it the act or deed of the corporation, but it shall be sufficient for that purpose that the document be signed by the Secretary-Treasurer, and countersigned by the Presidentor Vice-President of the Society, as such, or by the person or persons acting pro tempore in their stead, nor shall the authority or capacity of any person signing the same, or his signature, be called in question by any but the corporation, and if not so questioned shall be admitted in evidence without proof; and any document purporting to be the duplicate copy of the declaration signed by the proper immigration agent, shall be admitted as evidence of the facts stated therein, without proof of his signature, unless it be called in question by himself, or by the Minister of Agriculture, or by his authority.

9. The Secretary-Treasurer shall forthwith transmit every such application, with the requisite information and details, to the immigration agent of the district, with the amount the Society has undertaken to advance towards defraying the expenses to be incurred in complying with the application, in paying or partly paying the cost of the ocean passage and other travelling charges of the emigrants required from their home in Europe to the place in Canada where they are required.
